

Empower™

Microsemi's Systems Channel
Partner Program

Educate. Inspire. Delight. Empower™.

Partnerships are at the core of our success. Microsemi offers Empower™ - a comprehensive channel partner program designed to educate, inspire, motivate and delight our reseller community.

We are committed to empowering our partner's success by providing industry leading timing and synchronization and PoE systems. Empower™ strives to help your business succeed, enabling you to realize success in helping your customers build better precise network timing and powering solutions.

In turn, we believe Microsemi will be empowered to become a top supplier and continue its technology, market and channel leadership.
